

MIXIT™

The next step in digital color retrieval.

AkzoNobel

Driving the digital advantage

Colorvation is AkzoNobel's unique approach to vehicle refinishes based on the most advanced digital color technology available. Moving across to a digital platform brings measurable improvements to your refinishing processes – greater accuracy, greater efficiency and ultimately, greater profitability.

Connect with the future of color retrieval.

Colorvation's digital color retrieval tool, MIXIT™, is the most advanced application of its kind in vehicle refinishes. MIXIT™ is ultra fast, user-friendly and can be used seamlessly across multiple devices thanks to its revolutionary new cloud-based system. MIXIT™ also offers instant updates, in real time. AkzoNobel continues to add more and more functionality, ensuring that customers always have the full breadth of AkzoNobel's color knowledge on hand, wherever they are.
